LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Greetings fellow shooters, hope you are all enjoying our mild winter so far. Maybe there is something to this global warming theory, hopefully we are not in for a rough March/April. Just think, it won't be long before we can get some real practice in for the full 2020 season. For some of us, time will be running short with just 10 weeks before the Masters in Savannah GA.

I would like to congratulate our 2019 NY State Champions, job well done.

12ga. Aaron Benton, 20ga. Larry Bonavita, 28ga. Dana Driscoll, .410 Aaron Benton, Dbls. Bernie Lenehan, HOA Ian Smingler

Congratulations on another good showing for our NY Clubs in the top 100 2019 NSSA Shoots. Rochester Brooks (US Open #3 NYS Shoot #30), 3F (#56), Peconic (#76), Victor (#85), Conesus (#91).

I would like to thank all the clubs that had representation at our September Meeting. The election results are as follows: Secretary (Ian Smingler), Zone 1 (Jeff Ventry Jr.), Zone 3 David Cooley, Zone 5 (Jack Mutchler) at Large (Aaron Benton), welcome aboard.

For 2020, the annual NYSSA individual membership cost will now be $20.00 and club membership at $25.00. New Life Memberships will no longer be offered. This was motioned, voted and passed by your respective club directors at the September meeting. It has been many many years since we have had any increase in membership dues. To offset costs we have streamlined, combined mailings and converted paper processes to electronic format where feasible. However, we continue to manage our rising expenses with a declining active membership and shoot schedule. The membership renewal is on the back inside cover, please remit with your dues and all updated contact information upon receipt. Don't wait till your first shoot to join, shoot management will appreciate it.

On a special note I would like to thank Don Lewandoski for his many years of service helping the State Association with feasible printing options for the Records Annual and State Programs. This resource will no longer be available to us in 2021, so at this time its sad to say the 2020 Records Annual will be the last printed and mailed publication. We will continue to produce an electronic variant that will be posted on the website moving forward.

Exciting news, we have picked up a new shoot for July 7-12, the Empire State Championships at Rochester Brooks with $10,000.00 added money in the works. Let's not forget the first US Open I shoot June 6/26-28, with the regional location at the 3F club. On a sad note two of our shoots have fallen by the wayside for 2020 after many years, Big Tree and Hamburg have called it a day.

This year Aaron Benton has stepped up and will be running an Ammo Raffle to be drawn at our State Shoot. Six tickets have been mailed to all Club contacts please make every effort to sell these. Extra tickets are also available for this. Please contact Aaron Benton at 607-769-4355 for tickets. Proceeds will be for extra added money to the 2020 NY State Shoot. 400 tickets to be sold at $10.00 ea. or 3 for $25.00. Prizes 1st. $600.00 ammo or $475.00 cash, 2nd $400.00 ammo or $275.00 cash. (See page 21 for ticket details)

Thank you to Craig Parsons and Scott Janowski for their time and diligent researching of the old records which dates to the 30's. These are reflected in the records portion of this publication. If anyone has any additional information or if any errors exist, please let us know.

As always, I encourage our membership to be involved, we welcome all ideas and suggestions to improve our organization and venues. Please feel free to engage with our Zone Directors or EC Members.

Best of Luck and have fun filled shooting season, support your local clubs and nothing but smoke.

Dave Sobiegray
